South Africa's Biggest Comedy Fundraiser "You Must Be Kidding Me??" Returns to The Teatro at Montecasino in 2026.

Johannesburg, South Africa - Get ready for two unforgettable nights of laughter, entertainment and impact as RADA proudly presents the return of its "You Must Be Kidding Me??" comedy fundraiser taking place at the iconic Teatro at Montecasino on Friday, 9 October and Saturday, 10 October 2026.

Following the overwhelming success and sold-out performances in 2025, this year's production promises an even bigger and more vibrant comedy experience, featuring some of South Africa's most celebrated comedians under one roof.

Audiences can look forward to a powerhouse lineup including Alan Committie, Bongani Dube, Celeste Ntuli, Dave Levinsohn, David Kau, Kurt Schoonraad, Mark Banks and Ndumiso Lindi all bringing their signature humour and energy to the stage for a spectacular evening of world-class comedy.

Beyond the laughs lies a meaningful objective.

Proceeds from "You Must Be Kidding Me??" will support the RADA MiPad Project, an initiative dedicated to providing sustainable reusable sanitary wear to young girls who cannot afford essential monthly hygiene products. Through the MiPad initiative, RADA aims to empower young girls, restore dignity, improve confidence and help ensure that no girl misses school because of her menstrual cycle.

"This event is so much more than comedy, it's about creating real positive change while bringing people together through laughter. Our aim is to raise funds to provide schoolgirls with sanitary wear which enables them to attend school, graduate with confidence and the prospect of a bright productive future," says RADA CEO, John-Paul Nobrega.

Tickets are available to the public from 1 July through Webtickets - R250 per person, with limited seats available. Comedy fans and supporters are encouraged to book early to avoid disappointment.
